that was worth Rs. 80 when stolen, came back greatly lowered in condition and value. Some measures must be taken to remedy the evil.

Dewan's reply.—Deputy Commissioner will do the needful in individual cases.

Subject No. 337.
Restoration of Velpi Tank.

Summary of discussion.—A contribution was paid by the raiyats 14 or 15 years ago for the restoration of Velpi tank, but the work has not yet been carried out. Early orders are solicited.

Note.—The Sub-Division Officer explained that the project was investigated, and in the result preference given to the restoration of another and a larger tank in the same series. To this, raiyats objected. The matter seems to have, thereupon, remained in abeyance.

Dewan's reply.—Enquiry will be made. The Sub-Division Officer is instructed to arrange for one of the two tanks being undertaken.

Subject No. 338.
Chattram for Dodkaragodu in Goribidnur Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—Pilgrims from distant parts resort to Dodkaragodu, where at present the only accommodation available is the Chattram constructed by Nanjundaiya of Chelur, Hindupur Taluk, which is hardly sufficient. A pilgrim from Bangalore Cantonment intended building a large chattram, but has since abandoned the idea. A chattram is required at the place. The Sub-Division Officer explained that this was being constructed.

Dewan's reply.—Noted.

Subject No. 339.
Repair of Honskunte Tank in Goribidnur Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The Honsur Hobli of the Goribidnur Taluk is badly off for water. The Honskunte tank may be repaired. This will yield Rs. 3,000 to Government and conduce to prosperity of the people.

Dewan's reply.—For disposal in the D. P. W.

Subject No. 340.
Weekly market fees at Goribidnur.

Summary of discussion.—The income of the Municipality is low, though Government has kindly given up its own moiety of Mohatarfa to the Municipality. A small fee of three pies on each shop opened at the weekly fair may be levied.

Dewan's reply.—This is for the Municipal Board to first consider.

Subject No. 341.
Venkataramanaswami Temple at Goribidnur.

Summary of discussion.—About Rs. 1,000 belonging to the temple of Venkataramanaswami at Goribidnur, is in the hands of merchants. This should be recovered and utilized for getting Puja regularly performed. Khalsat having been charged on excess in the temple Inam, the Pujari has now no means of living.

Dewan's reply.—Under investigation by the Muzrai Superintendent.